

Finally, we then thought about the reasons we studied RE.

RE is important because you don't want to offend and hurt people. And you can hear really intriguing stories. You can also learn to understand people with a different religion.

R.E. is about understanding other religions and being kind to anyone you meet and be kinder than you already are.

R.E. is important because it shows you how important kindness is.

It's interesting, you can learn about other people and women why they choose to believe something. It also promotes the importance of love and kindness. It's full of amazing and exciting stories which are fun to hear, act, do not seating and fun to learn about.
