Creation and Science : conflicting or complementary?

I can understand different text types.

I can differentiate them by their different features.

I can express what text type I think the creation story is by its features..

This week, we looked at the features of different text types so that we can identify them. We then looked at the creation story from the Bible to see what type of text type we thought it could be.

1-2 First this: God created the Heavens and Earth—all you see, all you don't see. Earth was a soup of nothingness, a bottomless emptiness, an inky blackness. God's Spirit brooded like a bird above the watery abyss. Metaphors

3-5 God spoke: "Light!"
And light appeared.
God saw that light was good and separated light from dark.
God named the light Day, he named the dark Night.
It was evening, it was morning—
Day One. Repetition

6-8 God spoke: "Sky! In the middle of the waters; separate water from water!"
God made sky.
He separated the water under sky from the water above sky. Rhyming
And there it was:
he named sky the Heavens;
It was evening, it was morning—
Day Two. Metaphors

9-10 God spoke: "Separate!
Water-beneath-Heaven, gather into one place;
Land, appear!"
And there it was.
God named the land Earth.
He named the pooled water Ocean.
God saw that it was good. Repetition

11-13 God spoke: "Earth, green up! Grow all varieties of seed-bearing plants, Every sort of fruit-bearing tree."
And there it was.
Earth produced green seed-bearing plants, all varieties,
And fruit-bearing trees of all sorts.
God saw that it was good.
It was evening, it was morning—
Day Three. Repetition

14-15 God spoke: "Lights! Come out!
Shine in Heaven's sky!
Separate Day from Night.
Mark seasons and days and years,
Lights in Heaven's sky to give light to Earth."
And there it was. Repetition

16-18 God made two big lights, the larger to take charge of Day, The smaller to be in charge of Night; and he made the stars.
God placed them in the heavenly sky to light up Earth
And oversee Day and Night, to separate light and dark.
God saw that it was good. Repetition

What type of text do you think this is and why?
I think it is a poem because it is in verses
