In School:

Last week, we celebrated World Book Day, which was an opportunity for the children to dress-up as their favourite character and share a book with a 'reading buddy'. We also had a visit from Annie Muscutt (a storyteller) which all of the children enjoyed. I have included some photos on the second page of the newsletter of the children enjoying our World Book Day event.

Red Nose Day

Looking ahead to this Friday, we will be supporting Red Nose Day in school. As the theme is 'Do Something Funny for Money', the children are able to come to school in 'funny clothes' or if they prefer can have 'funny hair'. If they wish, they can even do both! We will also be holding 'The Funniest Joke' competition on the day. All children are encouraged to come to school and share their 'best' joke. Each class will vote for a winner and this will be followed by a 'grand final' in assembly. I'm sure we will all have lots of fun! In return, parents / carers can make a small donation to Comic Relief via our Just Giving page:

Results of the Parent Survey

I would like to pass on my thanks to all of the parents and carers who took the time to respond to the survey that was sent out. We are keen to collect your views and feedback on an annual basis, as we want to ensure that we meet the needs of the children and the wider community. Once again, the responses were extremely positive. Where parents / carers made comments / suggestions, we will consider these and feed them into our school improvement plans for the future, as appropriate. I will share a summary of the results with you separately, via Arbor.

Egg-stravaganza

As we start to think about the forthcoming Easter holiday, we will be holding our annual 'Egg-stravaganza' in school. All pupils are able to bring in decorated boiled / blown egg which will then be part of a class display. Parents will be invited into classes on Thursday 21st at 3pm. Having viewed the creations, parents / carers will then be able to take their child/ children home. Each child that takes part will also receive a mini chocolate egg. We know the children will enjoy coming up with some creative ideas!

Have a good week.

Mrs Desborough
