Curriculum

Subject Intent

As Writers we will master the skill of writing non-chronological reports through writing newspaper reports and diving into an author study, all around the text: Then Abominables, by Eva Ibbotson.

As Readers we will read and appreciate The Wolves of Willoughby Chase.

As Mathematicians we will develop our understanding of multiplication and division as well as fractions and statistics.

As Scientists we will study decay and recycling.

As Historians we will continue to explore what life was like for the Mayans.

As Artists we will create portraits through paint and mixed media.

As Musicians we will focus on Blues.

In PE we will focus on developing our dance skills as well as our hand eye coordination through badminton and dance.

In RE we will focus on the question 'Why do Christians believe Jesus was the Messiah?'

In French we will focus on a unit called 'Verbs in Week.'

As computer scientists we will focus on learning how to use code.

In PSHE we will focus on economic wellbeing.
